THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,

The Great Double Meteor.

Those who were so fortunate as to be up and out at 10 o'clock on Friday evening witnessed a meteoric display of unusual brilliancy and beauty. If it had been properly advertised, like the eclipse, it would have received more general and appreciative attention. A meteor of peculiar form and remarkable splendor moved across the sky from north-west to south-east, at that hour, which, judging from descriptions given of it at points widely distant, must have been of very great size. All observers agree in supposing that it passed very near the earth, but the fact that it was seen at distant points at the same moment and presented everywhere the same appearance, indicates that the eye was deceived by its size and brightness, and that it probably moved at a great elevation above the surface of the earth. We have accounts of it from correspondents at Greenfield, Holyoke, Northampton and Westhampton, agreeing substantially with the accounts we find of it in the papers of its appearance in Hartford, New Haven, Boston, New York, Albany and Philadelphia.

As noticed at Springfield, the meteor appeared of a light blue color in the north-west, of so decided a color as to give a blue tinge to the features and to the smooth surface of the river. It passed rapidly across the heavens towards the south-east, at an elevation of about 45°, continuing to grow brighter and to change to a bright red as it approached. Just before it reached the meridian it appeared to separate into two portions, throwing off at the same time brilliant sparks, which continued on with the larger fragments, forming a splendid train. The entire time of transit across the heavens is variously estimated at from half a minute to two minutes. Our Holyoke correspondent, who saw the meteor from a high hill west of that village, describes the parts as appearing to take the form of cones, the apex of one following the base of the other. The light of the meteor when nearest appeared to be nearly equal to the full moon.

At some places people thought they heard a hissing sound from the meteor as it passed, and some describe the first cone as shooting fire balls from its small end into the base of the other, which passed through the second cone and followed on its train behind; but both the hissing and these remarkable pyrotechnics may have been imaginary or very much assisted by the imagination. Some describe the meteor as being stationary for an instant before the explosion which separated it into two cones.

At some points it was seen of a bright orange color, instead of red; others describe it as closely resembling red hot iron. At Bedford, N. Y., it is described as resembling "two balls of fire or reversed spear heads, one behind the other, connected by a link of fire something like a chain-shot, and followed by a steady train of disjointed, broken bars of light or elongated sparks; the last ball gave out sparks of fire, most of them following in the train, one or two of them diverged, and were distinctly visible for some seconds." At Philadelphia it is described as "several bodies of a greenish hue, connected with a belt of flame; a long streamer of fire was in its wake." All agree that it moved more slowly than ordinary meteors, and that its progress was on that account very majestic and imposing. Of its actual hight none of the accounts give us the means of judging, and as it has probably quenched itself in the water of the Atlantic, its fragments are not likely to be recovered to reveal any portion of its wonderful story.

[From the Albany Evening Journal, July 23.]

The meteor of Friday night was seen everywhere throughout this state and throughout New England, New Jersey and Pennsylvania. It is in fact chronicled in nearly every exchange paper that has reached us since. It was certainly visible over a tract a thousand miles in length and five hundred in width, and perhaps over a still larger one. Its size and distance cannot be computed with any accuracy until we know the most distant points at which it was visible. As it was in full view at Boston and Newport, it must also have been seen from the Ocean. We shall have to await the arrival of the vessels from sea before knowing how far East it was visible. How far West South and North it could be seen, we shall soon learn from the mails. All sorts of wild statements are put forth, one authority asserting that it was not two hundred feet high, another several thousand miles.

When the extreme points at which it was observed are known, its height and size can be computed. The exact height of the meteor may not, at first thought, seem important, yet in reality it involves the whole theory as to the nature of these phenomena. The commonly received scientific opinion is that they are solid bodies moving in space, which take on fire by coming in contact with the earth's atmosphere, and are either consumed or else extinguished by passing out of it. But this theory requires that all meteors shall be within fifty miles of the earth, since the atmosphere extends no higher. If meteors are proved to be more than fifty miles high, some other theory must be devised to account for them. The present case, therefore, affords an excellent opportunity to test this question.

All these descriptions concur as to the appearance of the meteor, which seems to have presented precisely the same aspect wherever seen. There is a discrepancy, however, as to its final disappearance, some avowing it to have been silent, others that it was accompanied by an explosion. This point is worthy of careful examination.—The precise time of its observation at its different points, if compared, may throw some light on its distance and speed. Scientific men will do well to make the most of this meteor, as one of such magnitude and affording such facilities for investigation, hardly occurs twice in a lifetime.

From the Cleveland Herald.

We gave accounts of the meteor as it went on its fiery way last Friday evening. It evidently was bearing earth-ward as it went east. At this point it was, when first seen, apparently emerging from a dense cloud, and was a ball of fire; then it gave out a distinct, well defined tail, and as it passed along showed variegated colors. It was sufficiently luminous to cause objects to cast shadows, for persons walking had their attention attracted upward by supposing there was a flight of a rocket or other pyrotechnic display. But as seen from this point there was no explosion, and no giving off of fragments.

Its transit here was, as near as can be ascertained, at quarter past nine o'clock; at Buffalo at half past nine; at and near New York the accounts generally say it appeared a few minutes before ten. Allowing thirty minutes as difference of time between this and New York, there was an actual difference of five, ten or fifteen minutes.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

AND

—:o:—

Important Discoveries and New Arrangements!

THE subscriber has discovered upon his premises a splendid

which promises to surpass anything yet found in the state, as well as add to the many already developed resources of our city,

A Beautiful, Cheap and Durable Building Material,

He has made arrangements to work this, together with the justly celebrated

Monterey Lime Stone Quarry, on a scale equal to the demands of our enterprising citizens, and in order to accommodate his numerous customers, he has made arrangements to keep constantly on hand a large supply of

ATHENS MARBLE

(or Chicago stone.) He is now fitting up extensive saw and scouring mills, and other machinery necessary for working the stone, at a great reduction from former prices.

He also wishes to call attention to the fact that sound cutting or dimension stone can only be found at great distances from the surface, and that the Monterey Quarry is the only one in this county that has been worked far enough to reach those formations that are imperishable when exposed to the action of air and frost.

He is also supplying his Quarry with Derricks to facilitate the handling and hoisting large stone, and is fitting up extensive wagons, carts and trucks, rigged with the most approved appliances for moving and delivering dimension stone of any size, from two to thirty feet square, and from six to twenty inches thick, or any required length up to one hundred feet, to any part of the city or on board of the cars.

He is prepared to furnish

Cut Stone

of every description,

PLAIN, MOULDED, CARVED OR POLISHED FLAGGING

of any required dimension.

Curbing, Paving, Ruble and Coursing

stone of the best quality in the state, all of which will be delivered at his Quarries or any part of the city, to suit purchasers.

In conclusion, he begs to assure the public that from the superior quality of his materials, and facilities for furnishing, he can and will make it to their interests to patronize the Monterey Quarries.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

The Great Double Meteor.

Those who were so fortunate as to be up and out at 10 o'clock on Friday evening witnessed a meteoric display of unusual brilliancy and beauty. If it had been properly advertised, like the eclipse, it would have received more general and appreciative attention. A meteor of peculiar form and remarkable splendor moved across the sky from north-west to south-east, at that hour, which, judging from descriptions given of it at points widely distant, must have been of very great size. All observers agree in supposing that it passed very near the earth, but the fact that it was seen at distant points at the same moment and presented everywhere the same appearance, indicates that the eye was deceived by its size and brightness, and that it probably moved at a great elevation above the surface of the earth. We have accounts of it from correspondents at Greenfield, Holyoke, Northampton and Westhampton, agreeing substantially with the accounts we find of it in the papers of its appearance in Hartford, New Haven, Boston, New York, Albany and Philadelphia.

As noticed at Springfield, the meteor appeared of a light blue color in the northwest, of so decided a color as to give a blue tinge to the features and to the smooth surface of the river. It passed rapidly across the heavens towards the south-east, at an elevation of about 45°, continuing to grow brighter and to change to a bright red as it approached. Just before it reached the meridian it appeared to separate into two portions, throwing off at the same time brilliant sparks, which continued on with the larger fragments, forming a splendid train. The entire time of transit across the heavens is variously estimated at from half a minute to two minutes. Our Holyoke correspondent, who saw the meteor from a high hill west of that village, describes the parts as appearing to take the form of cones, the apex of one following the base of the other. The light of the meteor when nearest appeared to be nearly equal to the full moon.

At some places people thought they heard a hissing sound from the meteor as it passed, and some describe the first cone as shooting fire balls from its small end into the base of the other, which passed through the second cone and followed on its train behind; but both the hissing and these remarkable pyrotechnics may have been imaginary or very much assisted by the imagination. Some describe the meteor as being stationary for an instant before the explosion which separated it into two cones.

At some points it was seen of a bright orange color, instead of red; others describe it as closely resembling red hot iron. At Bedford, N. Y., it is described as resembling "two balls of fire or reversed spear heads, one behind the other, connected by a link of fire something like a chain-shot, and followed by a steady train of disjointed, broken bars of light or elongated sparks; the last ball gave out sparks of fire, most of them following in the train, one or two of them diverged, and were distinctly visible for some seconds." At Philadelphia it is described as "several bodies of a greenish hue, connected with a belt of flame; a long streamer of fire was in its wake." All agree that it moved more slowly than ordinary meteors, and that its progress was on that account very majestic and imposing. Of its actual hight none of the accounts give us the means of judging, and as it has probably quenched itself in the water of the Atlantic, its fragments are not likely to be recovered to reveal any portion of its wonderful story.

[From the Albany Evening Journal, July 23.]

The meteor of Friday night was seen everywhere throughout this state and throughout New England, New Jersey and Pennsylvania. It is in fact chronicled in nearly every exchange paper that has reached us since. It was certainly visible over a tract a thousand miles in length and five hundred in width, and perhaps over a still larger one. Its size and distance cannot be computed with any accuracy until we know the most distant points at which it was visible. As it was in full view at Boston and Newport, it must also have been seen from the Ocean. We shall have to await the arrival of the vessels from sea before knowing how far East it was visible. How far West South and North it could be seen, we shall soon learn from the mails. All sorts of wild statements are put forth, one authority asserting that it was not two hundred feet high, another several thousand miles.

When the extreme points at which it was observed are known, its height and size can be computed. The exact height of the meteor may not, at first thought, seem important, yet in reality it involves the whole theory as to the nature of these phenomena. The commonly received scientific opinion is that they are solid bodies moving in space, which take on fire by coming in contact with the earth's atmosphere, and are either consumed or else extinguished by passing out of it. But this theory requires that all meteors shall be within fifty miles of the earth, since the atmosphere extends no higher. If meteors are proved to be more than fifty miles high, some other theory must be devised to account for them. The present case, therefore, affords an excellent opportunity to test this question.

All these descriptions concur as to the appearance of the meteor, which seems to have presented precisely the same aspect wherever seen. There is a discrepancy, however, as to its final disappearance, some avowing it to have been silent, others that it was accompanied by an explosion. This point is worthy of careful examination.—The precise time of its observation at its different points, if compared, may throw some light on its distance and speed. Scientific men will do well to make the most of this meteor, as one of such magnitude and affording such facilities for investigation, hardly occurs twice in a lifetime.

From the Cleveland Herald.

We gave accounts of the meteor as it went on its fiery way last Friday evening. It evidently was bearing earth-ward as it went east. At this point it was, when first seen, apparently emerging from a dense cloud, and was a ball of fire; then it gave out a distinct, well defined tail, and as it passed along showed variegated colors. It was sufficiently luminous to cause objects to cast shadows, for persons walking had their attention attracted upward by supposing there was a flight of a rocket or other pyrotechnic display. But as seen from this point there was no explosion, and no giving off of fragments.

Its transit here was, as near as can be ascertained, at quarter past nine o'clock; at Buffalo at half past nine; at and near New York the accounts generally say it appeared a few minutes before ten. Allowing thirty minutes as difference of time between this and New York, there was an actual difference of five, ten or fifteen minutes.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and firms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,

The Great Double Meteor.

Those who were so fortunate as to be up and out at 10 o'clock on Friday evening witnessed a meteoric display of unusual brilliancy and beauty. If it had been properly advertised, like the eclipse, it would have received more general and appreciative attention. A meteor of peculiar form and remarkable splendor moved across the sky from north-west to south-east, at that hour, which, judging from descriptions given of it at points widely distant, must have been of very great size. All observers agree in supposing that it passed very near the earth, but the fact that it was seen at distant points at the same moment and presented everywhere the same appearance, indicates that the eye was deceived by its size and brightness, and that it probably moved at a great elevation above the surface of the earth. We have accounts of it from correspondents at Greenfield, Holyoke, Northampton and Westhampton, agreeing substantially with the accounts we find of it in the papers of its appearance in Hartford, New Haven, Boston, New York, Albany and Philadelphia.

As noticed at Springfield, the meteor appeared of a light blue color in the north-west, of so decided a color as to give a blue tinge to the features and to the smooth surface of the river. It passed rapidly across the heavens towards the south-east, at an elevation of about 45°, continuing to grow brighter and to change to a bright red as it approached. Just before it reached the meridian it appeared to separate into two portions, throwing off at the same time brilliant sparks, which continued on with the larger fragments, forming a splendid train. The entire time of transit across the heavens is variously estimated at from half a minute to two minutes. Our Holyoke correspondent, who saw the meteor from a high hill west of that village, describes the parts as appearing to take the form of cones, the apex of one following the base of the other. The light of the meteor when nearest appeared to be nearly equal to the full moon.

At some places people thought they heard a hissing sound from the meteor as it passed, and some describe the first cone as shooting fire balls from its small end into the base of the other, which passed through the second cone and followed on its train behind; but both the hissing and these remarkable pyrotechnics may have been imaginary or very much assisted by the imagination. Some describe the meteor as being stationary for an instant before the explosion which separated it into two cones.

At some points it was seen of a bright orange color, instead of red; others describe it as closely resembling red hot iron. At Bedford, N. Y., it is described as resembling "two balls of fire or reversed spear heads, one behind the other, connected by a link of fire something like a chain-shot, and followed by a steady train of disjointed, broken bars of light or elongated sparks: the last ball gave out sparks of fire, most of them following in the train, one or two of them diverged, and were distinctly visible for some seconds." At Philadelphia it is described as "several bodies of a greenish hue, connected with a belt of flame; a long streamer of fire was in its wake." All agree that it moved more slowly than ordinary meteors, and that its progress was on that account very majestic and imposing. Of its actual hight none of the accounts give us the means of judging, and as it has probably quenched itself in the water of the Atlantic, its fragments are not likely to be recovered to reveal any portion of its wonderful story.

[From the Albany Evening Journal, July 23.]

The meteor of Friday night was seen everywhere throughout this state and throughout New England, New Jersey and Pennsylvania. It is in fact chronicled in nearly every exchange paper that has reached us since. It was certainly visible over a tract a thousand miles in length and five hundred in width, and perhaps over a still larger one. Its size and distance cannot be computed with any accuracy until we know the most distant points at which it was visible. As it was in full view at Boston and Newport, it must also have been seen from the Ocean. We shall have to await the arrival of the vessels from sea before knowing how far East it was visible. How far West South and North it could be seen, we shall soon learn from the mails. All sorts of wild statements are put forth, one authority asserting that it was not two hundred feet high, another several thousand miles.

When the extreme points at which it was observed are known, its height and size can be computed. The exact height of the meteor may not, at first thought, seem important, yet in reality it involves the whole theory as to the nature of these phenomena. The commonly received scientific opinion is that they are solid bodies moving in space, which take on fire by coming in contact with the earth's atmosphere, and are either consumed or else extinguished by passing out of it. But this theory requires that all meteors shall be within fifty miles of the earth, since the atmosphere extends no higher. If meteors are proved to be more than fifty miles high, some other theory must be devised to account for them. The present case, therefore, affords an excellent opportunity to test this question.

All these descriptions concur as to the appearance of the meteor, which seems to have presented precisely the same aspect wherever seen. There is a discrepancy, however, as to its final disappearance, some avowing it to have been silent, others that it was accompanied by an explosion. This point is worthy of careful examination.—The precise time of its observation at its different points, if compared, may throw some light on its distance and speed. Scientific men will do well to make the most of this meteor, as one of such magnitude and affording such facilities for investigation, hardly occurs twice in a lifetime.

From the Cleveland Herald.

We gave accounts of the meteor as it went on its fiery way last Friday evening. It evidently was bearing earth-ward as it went east. At this point it was, when first seen, apparently emerging from a dense cloud, and was a ball of fire; then it gave out a distinct, well defined tail, and as it passed along showed variegated colors. It was sufficiently luminous to cause objects to cast shadows, for persons walking had their attention attracted upward by supposing there was a flight of a rocket or other pyrotechnic display. But as seen from this point there was no explosion, and no giving off of fragments.

Its transit here was, as near as can be ascertained, at quarter past nine o'clock; at Buffalo at half past nine; at and near New York the accounts generally say it appeared a few minutes before ten. Allowing thirty minutes as difference of time between this and New York, there was an actual difference of five, ten or fifteen minutes.

Politics at the South--A Union of all Parties upon Breckinridge.

We are indebted to a friend in this city for a copy of the Montgomery Mail, of the 12th inst., the principal democratic organ published at the capital of Alabama. From a perusal of it we get a very good idea of the tendency of public opinion at the south, on the subject of the presidency. There is much turmoil among the people of that region at this time on the subject of politics. The division of the democratic party, its double nomination, and the nomination of Bell and Everett, stir up the south from the very bottom. The questions with every man are—"what am I to do?" "which is the strongest party?" and "what course will help the south the most?" In the present distracted state of things it is difficult for the southerners, who follow leaders more than any other people, to answer these questions, and hence they are very anxious and excited.

There is a large party at the south opposed to the dissolution of the Union. This has grown up in consequence of former contests upon that subject, as well as because many of them see plainly enough that the south, outside of the union, would be very weak, and could not even defend themselves against their own negroes. The union party was always pretty strong, and they are making great efforts to become the predominent party in the south, since the democratic party has been divided between Douglas and Breckinridge.

The Douglas party has but one point of strength, which is, that they claim to be able to carry some of the northern states with their candidate, whereas the Breckinridge party have no hope of that kind, and it is upon this string that they play continually at the south. Even this argument, does not seem to effect much against the feeling that southern slavery is no longer safe in the hands of northern men who have once proved unfaithful. The Middle Georgian says that out of thirty-five newspapers in Georgia "two have hoisted the names of Douglas and Johnson." The Montgomery Mail says that there are now only "twelve Douglas organs in this state." [Alabama.] So it will be seen that Douglasism is not very strong in that region. This feeling of weakness is inducing them to make offers for a union with the Bell and Everett men. The Mail says there is evidently a billing and cooing going on between some of the Douglas and Bell journals of Alabama and Georgia; and the Middle Georgian declares that "the Douglas men south, despairing of the success of their own candidates, intend to take Bell and Everett as the alternative."

It is quite evident that the Douglas party south is to be wiped out of existence very soon, either by a transfer to the Bell and Everett party, or else a general stampede to the support of Breckinridge.

The Montgomery Mail comes out with a leader and proposes a union upon Breckinridge and Lane of all parties at the south to defeat Lincoln, which they fear cannot be accomplished in any other way. In order that the Douglas men north may see how "things is working" at the south, we copy their article:

"AN UNITED FRONT TO DEFEAT LINCOLN."—In reply to an article of ours thus headed, the Augusta Chronicle asks, "how Breckinridge can be elected, even if every voter in every southern state should support him, and still make the race in the north."

We do not know, of course, that Mr. Breckinridge would be elected even if he should receive the united vote of the south, and all the votes of the north opposed to abolitionism in all of its phases. Still it is clear that if the people of the south do not make a united and determined effort to defeat Lincoln, they may look in vain for a union in defence of their rights elsewhere. We feel assured that the bulk of the people of the north opposed to Lincoln would concentrate their energies to the election of Breckinridge if they could be convinced that he will carry every southern state. But as long as the southern people seem divided in their opposition to Lincoln, it is folly to look for unity in the same cause in the north.

The signs indicate that two-thirds of the popular vote of the south are in favor of Breckinridge. Still one or two southern states may cast their votes against him, if three tickets remain in the field, and this would probably result in the election of a black republican. To avoid all unnecessary risk, it is the policy of the south, in our humble opinion, to present an united front to defeat Lincoln, and this union should adopt Breckinridge and Lane as standard-bearers—the only ticket which stands committed to state rights and state equality in the Union. Their platform is explicit, and cannot be misinterpreted. It unequivocally asserts for the south all the rights in dispute. If southern men will rally to it in solid phalanx, and show to the north before the election that they are united, the opponents of black republicanism at the north will also rally to it—and the black republicans will not dare to elect Lincoln, even if they have the power. But if the south remain divided at the ballot box, her people will scarcely deserve sympathy, no matter what the result may be.

If the south cannot unite upon Breckinridge and Lane, and the platform they are pledged to be guided by in their construction of the constitution, it is folly to think of uniting upon any other ticket or platform now in the field.

From this it is evident that the Douglas men in this state, who are working in good faith for their candidate, can place no confidence in southern democrats. While here democrats are laboring for Douglas, in the south they are SELLING HIM OUT. Let the Douglas men keep a sharp eye upon their southern brethren.

☞ We find in the Free Democrat the names of several other gentlemen, residents of this county, who have been mentioned as candidates for congress, besides those alluded to in our paper yesterday. We will therefore re-publish the list, so far as we have heard them named. They are as follows: Messrs. J. A. Sleeper, Alex. Graham, J. M. Burgess, C. G. Williams, J. H. Knowlton, James Sutherland, I. C. Sloan, L. P. Harvey and Z. P. Burdick. It is needless for us to say that these are all good men and that if either of them should be nominated, would receive our cordial support. The same remark may also be applied to Luther Hanchett of Portage, and J. Allen Barber of Grant, whose names have also been suggested.

HON. L. P. HARVEY.—It has been currently reported in various quarters that Hon. L. P. Harvey was or would be a candidate for Congress this fall. This representation certainly cannot come from his friends who know his feelings or wishes in this matter, for we do know that Mr. Harvey has repeatedly declared he was not a candidate nor would he in any event allow the use of his name.

When Mr. Harvey was named for the office he now holds, he was prominent among those mentioned in connection with Representative in Congress, and being from Rock county would in all probability have been nominated this fall had he not accepted the nomination for the office of Secretary of State. All this Mr. Harvey knew as well as any one else, but the voice of his party with great unanimity pronounced him the man for that place, and he relinquished what was apparently within his reach, and allowed the use of his name at the urgent request of his friends with the hope that he might discharge its duties with credit to himself, and for the best interests of the state.

Elected, he sat about the work, and those who know in what manner the affairs of that office had been managed under democraic rule, who were cognizant of the corruptions that had crept in, the extent of the profligacy and squandering of the public money through the practices in that office; and how faithful Mr. Harvey has been in the work, how the interests he was set to guard have been protected, how by his untiring perseverance the state has been relieved from the burdens heaped upon her under the administration of his predecessor, can only know how much the people of this state owe to their efficient secretary of state.

☞ Politicians in California, at the latest accounts, were almost crazy to hear from the Baltimore convention. They had only received news of the organization. There will not be much relief when they hear the whole story.

POLITICAL JOURNALS IN ALABAMA.—The Montgomery (Ala.) Advertiser having given a political classification of the papers in that state, says:

It will be seen that Bell and Everett have nearly twice as many newspaper supporters in Alabama as Douglas, and that Breckinridge and Lane have six times as many papers as Douglas, nearly four times as many as Bell and Everett, and more than twice as many as Bell and Douglas combined.

THE MEDITERRANEAN SQUADRON.—There is now but one vessel of war in the Mediterranean, at the time, of all others, when a full peace complement is necessary, owing to the revolutionary condition of Italy, and the hazards to which American citizens are necessarily exposed. The new commodore is preparing to go out, but it is slow work at the Norfolk Navy Yard, where equipment and repairs cost more than at any other, with less promptitude and satisfaction.

☞ Among the appropriations to be voted by the British parliament is one of $57,500 for Dr. Livingstone's explorations in Africa, for which another steamer is needed. The discoveries of Dr. Livinstone are regarded as of the greatest importance at the Cape colony, and the colonial legislature has appropriated funds to keep up a regular inland communication with the exploring party.

☞ I. N. Arnold has been nominated for congress by the republicans, in the Chicago district. His opponent was Mr. Farnsworth, the present member.

☞ Levi S. Chatfield of New York, has served a notice of a motion for an injunction upon the mayor and comptroller of New York to restrain them from paying any bills for the Japanese reception. The plaintiff alleges that the committee on reception and members of the common council sold tickets for the ball at from $10 to $100, the proceeds of which they pocketed.

☞ A mob tore down thirty houses of ill-fame in St. Louis, on the 25th inst. The loss is estimated at $30,000.

Political News.

All the candidates for the presidency and vice presidency, who have been provided for the American people, have been indulging in stump speeches, with the exception of the republican nominees. Senator Douglas, with his accustomed modesty, has made about a dozen short speeches. Herschell V. Johnson has made a long speech. John Bell made a speech in Philadelphia. Edward Everett has delivered a Fourth of July oration. Breckinridge has made three speeches, and Joe Lane has been guilty of several protracted talks.

On Tuesday evening last, at the meeting of the German republican club at Peoria, Illinois, six Germans, all of whom have been staunch democrats up to the present time, joined the club, and will hereafter work zealously for Lincoln and Hamlin.

Says the Peoria Transcript:—

A gentleman from one of our neighboring townships was in our office yesterday, and informed us that in his township two years ago the republicans cast only fourteen votes, but he will now pledge it for fifty for "Old Abe" the coming fall.

Mr. Henry McGrow, who owns the coal beds opposite Pekin, has in his employ ten men, all of whom were formerly democrats. Eight of them, however, believing "Old Abe" to be the working man's friend, intend to give him their votes at the approaching election.

Mr. Robert Winslow, of Bureau county, Ill., democratic elector of 1856 for the third congressional district, and up to 1858 one of the leading democrats of Illinois, is now strongly attached to republican principles, and will vote for Lincoln and Hamlin.

ST. LOUIS, July 25.

RUMORED NEGRO INSURRECTION IN TEXAS.—An "extra" from the Bonham (Texas) Era office of the 17th, received here to night by the Overland mail, contains a letter from Chas. B. Pryor, editor of Dallas Herald, stating that a fire at that place on the 8th, led to the discovery of a diabolical plan to devastate the whole of northern Texas. White men, friends of the abolition preachers Blunt and McKinney, expelled from the country last year, were the instigators of the plot. The plan was to lay the whole country waste by fire, destroying all arms, ammunition, etc., to get the country in a state of helplessness, and then on election day in August, make a general insurrection, aided by emissaries from the North, and parties friendly to the cause in Texas.

Their sphere of action was districted and sub-districted, each division being under the supervision of a white man, who controlled the negroes as subordinates. Several white men and negroes were arrested at Dallas.

The following fires are reported to have occurred the same day that Dallas was destroyed, and attributed to the same cause: A large mercantile house at Black Jack Grove, loss $30,000; three business houses at Denton, loss $100,000; a large stone house at Pilot Point, loss $10,000; a stone house at Ladonie, loss $25,000; eight stores at Belknap, loss not given. Milford, in Ellis county, was totally destroyed, and there were several other smaller fires. Great excitement existed throughout the country. Prompt and effective measures are being taken for the preservation of property.

A Mr. Blount, from Green county in this state, was whipped in Texas last winter, and perhaps this may be the same man. He was always a democrat, and even after he came back with pro-slavery welts on his back, persisted in his democracy.

☞ The Prince of Wales is to travel in state in the colonies. Strict orders have been given by the Queen that he shall be treated like herself in all respects. Nobody can address the Prince until the Prince addresses him, and as the royal scion is extremely taciturn, the conversations at his receptions are not likely to be very brilliant.

☞ It is said that by a curious oversight the last New York Legislature repealed the only secton in the laws of the state which defined the mode of punishment by death, and consequently that no persons can be legally executed in the Empire State.

NEW JERSEY.—The two wings of the democracy at their convention in New Jersey, yesterday, did not agree upon a union electoral ticket; both factions nominated tickets of their own. The Americans also held a convention and nominated a fusion ticket, two electors for Douglas, two for Breckinridge and three for Bell.

AT THE STATE CAPITAL.—The Douglasites had their great State Mass Meeting at Springfield yesterday. They estimate the number present at 40,000, which is probably about double the actual number.

We believe the Republicans can afford to concede 40,000 to them, and go at least 10,000 better. Our State Mass Meeting will come off at Springfield on the 7th of August. It will be a Republican love feast at "Old Abe's" home. Railroads will carry for half-fare. The best speakers to be had are invited and will be present.

The people of the State will turn out, and we say unto them all, turn out!—Chicago Journal.

THE CHANGES TO LINCOLN—THE BALL IS ROLLING.—We find the following in the Bath (N. Y.) Courier:

Hon. G. Denniston, a leading member of the American party in this county, and we may add in the state, since its first organization, addressed the republicans of Prattsburg on Friday evening of last week. He reviewed the republican platform adopted at Chicago, as well as the published speeches of Mr. Lincoln, and regarding both platform and candidate as national and sound, he announced his intention to support both at the coming election. Lieut. Gov. Campbell had been advertised as the speaker of the evening, and the audience were alike surprised and gratified at this preliminary entertainment, which had not been announced in the bills.

Judge Denniston, it will be remembered, was a leading member of the legislature in 1856, and was at one time vice president of the American state council. Discovering that the American party is practically disbanded, he chooses to go with such Americans as Jas. O. Putnam, Shepard, Knapp and Daniel Ullman, for the right, rather than follow Brooks, Hunt & Co. into the camp of the pro-slavery and wrangling democracy.

Judge Denniston was the American candidate for canal commissioner, a few years since.

WHY DON'T BOYS GROW UP HANDSOME.—A correspondent of the Springfield Republican says:

For the male human race, in its common aspects, is by no means beautiful. Yet most boys are handsome. Why don't they grow up handsome? It is hard work and poverty, and rum and tobacco, and selfishness, and vanity, and all the other foolish propensities and bad habits, which so play the deuce with their good looks. Lincoln looks like a man who had inherited rough features, and had kept them rough by a hard scrimmage with life, but he is not half so ugly as some of the men who pass for handsome, and who were born handsome, and lived so till they were old enough to begin to smoke bad cigars, and "chaw" nasty tobacco, and drink "rot-gut."

Telegraphic

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE,
Office in Union Passenger Depot.

BRUNSWICK, Me., July 26.

The passenger train from Portland, on the Kennebec and Portland railroad, was thrown from the track near Bowdoin House. Two passenger cars were thrown over, but no one killed.

MONTPELIER, July 26.

The democratic state convention to nominate state officers and electors at large, was held here to-day. P. Dillingham, of Waterbury, presided, and Messrs. E. M. Smally of Burlington and Wyman of St Albans were appointed secretaries.

John G. Saxe of Burlington was nominated for governor, Stephen Thomas of West Fairly for lieut. governor, Jas. S. Thurston of Montpelier for treasurer. Electors at large, Isaac Browdith and and P. Dillingham of Waterbury.

The convention was large and enthusiastic and unanimous for Douglas and Johnson.

SENECA FALLS, July 27.

The democrats of Seneca county held an immense Douglas ratification meeting at this place last night. Over 3,000 persons were present.

CONCORD, N. H., July 27.

This morning about five o'clock, James S. Williams a merchant of Warren, N. H., stepped up to Mr. Wyatt, and shot him through the heart with a revolve. He died instantly, Williams is under arrest. The cause was trouble about an old debt, Wyatt was a young man, leaves a wife and one child.

PHILADELPHIA, July 27.

The factory of Potts & Kelarie, at Cooper's Point, near Camden, was demolished during the thunder storm yesterday afternoon. Eight men took shelter from the rain, therein, of whom three were killed, and three seriously injured. The building was two hundred feet long. Loss, four thousand dollars.

HARRISBURGH, Pa., July 26.

The democratic convention adopted, to-night, unanimously a series of resolutions endorsing the platform and nominations of the recent convention at Reading, and also the platform and resolutions of the Baltimore national democratic convention. Denouncing the plan of the state democratic committee for fusion as anti-democratic, and in opposition to the wishes of the democratic masses, and finally declaring it to be the duty of the state committee to call another convention of the democracy for the purpose of preparing an electoral ticket pledged to sustain the action of the Baltimore national convention and the regular democratic candidates, Douglas and Johnson.

NEW YORK, July 27.

The rain storm yesterday afternoon did considerable damage in this vicinity. Several houses were inundated in Williamsburg, one struck by lightning and the inmate, Mrs. Perry, killed, a barn also struck and burned. A New Yorker named Purple was stabbed twice with a bowie knife, at the St. Nicholas Hotel last evening, by a Philacelphian named Hyman.

Great excitement at Occquain, Virginia, near Alexandria, in consequence of the republicans raising a banner bearing the names of Lincoln and Hamlin. The citizens attempted to demolish it. The republicans resisted and despatched messengers to neighboring towns for arms and ammunition. Gov. Letcher ordered Gen. Hatton to call out his troops to protect the republicans, but the General preferred resigning his command. At last accounts it was expected the military of Alexandria would be called out. Occaquain contains 300 republicans and was the residence of Mr. Underwriter, the ostracised republican.

WASHINGTON, July 26.

The United States court of claims had adjourned to meet on the 25th of October next. But little business has been transacted during the present year. Counsel in many places prefering to await definite action on the congressional bill, proposing to so change the law establishing that tribunal so as to make its awards final and giving the right to appeal.

The Market.

NEW YORK, July 27.

Flour market heavy but prices without important change, sales 14,000 barrels, 5,00a5,10 super state; 5,10a5,30 extra state; 4,80a5,00 super western; 5,05a5,20 common to medium extra western. Wheat without striking change; the scarcity of freight room and advance in rates materially checks the export demand, sales 33,000 bushels, 1,23 Milwaukee club.

GOV. SEWARD AT LA CROSSE.—The states of Wisconsin and Minnesota, through the republican central committees of their respective states, have extended a joint invitation to Hon. Wm. H. Seward to address the republicans of Wisconsin, Minnesota and northern Iowa, at a great union mass meeting to be held at La Crosse. There is good reason to believe that the invitation will be accepted, notwithstanding the meetings to be held at St. Paul, Min., and at some other point in Wisconsin.—La Crosse Republican.

The Buffalo Commercial has some sensible observations on that nasty intrigue by which Messrs. W. Hunt, J. and E. Brooks and W. Duer propose to sell the Bell voters of the state to Mr. Douglas and then deliver them, bound hand and foot to Gen. Joe Lane. "Hardly a tithe of the American vote," says the Commercial, "will be cast for Douglas. Within a day or two past we have learned that one of the most prominent members of the state national Union committee, a man whose consent is almost essential to the success of the proposed transfer, declares that he will beat the bargain if he can, and if not will vote and work for Lincoln. He is a Bell man, and no contingency can compel him to vote for Douglas."

So it must be everywhere. Such an enormous piece of humbug as that proposed by this small clique of broken down politicians can never be approved by sincere and reflecting people.—New York Tribune.

ANOTHER LINCOLN RECRUIT.—The Madison Argus having mentioned the name of John R. Detwiler as a probable democratic candidate for clerk of the board of supervisors, that gentleman publishes a note in the Madison Journal, in which he says:

"It is true, I have been a so-called hard shell democrat, until I have read the proceedings of the democratic Baltimore convention, after which I thought proper to embrace the principles of the republican party, and so I did. To my friends I mentioned my determination, but I did not see fit to state it publicly, because I did not want to see my name in print, and because I did not become a republican on account of any office, having never been an office seeker."

When he fell, he (Douglas) drew after him "the third part of heaven," as Burr, Van Buren and Benton did.—Madison Argus.

That makes four-thirds of heaven. Who took the other third?

☞ The first appearance of the meteor, discribed in another column, was at Detroit, and was observed as far east as Boston.

Politics at the South--A Union of all Parties upon Breckinridge.

We are indebted to a friend in this city for a copy of the Montgomery Mail, of the 12th inst., the principal democratic organ published at the capital of Alabama. From a perusal of it we get a very good idea of the tendency of public opinion at the south, on the subject of the presidency. There is much turmoil among the people of that region at this time on the subject of politics. The division of the democratic party, its double nomination, and the nomination of Bell and Everett, stir up the south from the very bottom. The questions with every man are—"what am I to do?" "which is the strongest party?" and "what course will help the south the most?" In the present distracted state of things it is difficult for the southerners, who follow leaders more than any other people, to answer these questions, and hence they are very anxious and excited.

There is a large party at the south opposed to the dissolution of the Union. This has grown up in consequence of former contests upon that subject, as well as because many of them see plainly enough that the south, outside of the union, would be very weak, and could not even defend themselves against their own negroes. The union party was always pretty strong, and they are making great efforts to become the predominent party in the south, since the democratic party has been divided between Douglas and Breckinridge.

The Douglas party has but one point of strength, which is, that they claim to be able to carry some of the northern states with their candidate, whereas the Breckinridge party have no hope of that kind, and it is upon this string that they play continually at the south. Even this argument, does not seem to effect much against the feeling that southern slavery is no longer safe in the hands of northern men who have once proved unfaithful. The Middle Georgian says that out of thirty-five newspapers in Georgia "two have hoisted the names of Douglas and Johnson." The Montgomery Mail says that there are now only "twelve Douglas organs in this state." [Alabama.] So it will be seen that Douglasism is not very strong in that region. This feeling of weakness is inducing them to make offers for a union with the Bell and Everett men. The Mail says there is evidently a billing and cooing going on between some of the Douglas and Bell journals of Alabama and Georgia; and the Middle Georgian declares that "the Douglas men south, despairing of the success of their own candidates, intend to take Bell and Everett as the alternative."

It is quite evident that the Douglas party south is to be wiped out of existence very soon, either by a transfer to the Bell and Everett party, or else a general stampede to the support of Breckinridge.

The Montgomery Mail comes out with a leader and proposes a union upon Breckinridge and Lane of all parties at the south to defeat Lincoln, which they fear cannot be accomplished in any other way. In order that the Douglas men north may see how "things is working" at the south, we copy their article:

"AN UNITED FRONT TO DEFEAT LINCOLN."—In reply to an article of ours thus headed, the Augusta Chronicle asks, "how Breckinridge can be elected, even if every voter in every southern state should support him, and still make the race in the north."

We do not know, of course, that Mr. Breckinridge would be elected even if he should receive the united vote of the south, and all the votes of the north opposed to abolitionism in all of its phases. Still it is clear that if the people of the south do not make a united and determined effort to defeat Lincoln, they may look in vain for a union in defence of their rights elsewhere. We feel assured that the bulk of the people of the north opposed to Lincoln would concentrate their energies to the election of Breckinridge if they could be convinced that he will carry every southern state. But as long as the southern people seem divided in their opposition to Lincoln, it is folly to look for unity in the same cause in the north.

The signs indicate that two-thirds of the popular vote of the south are in favor of Breckinridge. Still one or two southern states may cast their votes against him, if three tickets remain in the field, and this would probably result in the election of a black republican. To avoid all unnecessary risk, it is the policy of the south, in our humble opinion, to present an united front to defeat Lincoln, and this union should adopt Breckinridge and Lane as standard-bearers—the only ticket which stands committed to state rights and state equality in the Union. Their platform is explicit, and cannot be misinterpreted. It unequivocally asserts for the south all the rights in dispute. If southern men will rally to it in solid phalanx, and show to the north before the election that they are united, the opponents of black republicanism at the north will also rally to it—and the black republicans will not dare to elect Lincoln, even if they have the power. But if the south remain divided at the ballot box, her people will scarcely deserve sympathy, no matter what the result may be.

If the south cannot unite upon Breckinridge and Lane, and the platform they are pledged to be guided by in their construction of the constitution, it is folly to think of uniting upon any other ticket or platform now in the field.

From this it is evident that the Douglas men in this state, who are working in good faith for their candidate, can place no confidence in southern democrats. While here democrats are laboring for Douglas, in the south they are SELLING HIM OUT. Let the Douglas men keep a sharp eye upon their southern brethren.

☞ We find in the Free Democrat the names of several other gentlemen, residents of this county, who have been mentioned as candidates for congress, besides those alluded to in our paper yesterday. We will therefore re-publish the list, so far as we have heard them named. They are as follows: Messrs. J. A. Sleeper, Alex. Graham, J. M. Burgess, C. G. Williams, J. H. Knowlton, James Sutherland, I. C. Sloan, L. P. Harvey and Z. P. Burdick. It is needless for us to say that these are all good men and that if either of them should be nominated, would receive our cordial support. The same remark may also be applied to Luther Hanchett of Portage, and J. Allen Barber of Grant, whose names have also been suggested.

HON. L. P. HARVEY.—It has been currently reported in various quarters that Hon. L. P. Harvey was or would be a candidate for Congress this fall. This representation certainly cannot come from his friends who know his feelings or wishes in this matter, for we do know that Mr. Harvey has repeatedly declared he was not a candidate nor would he in any event allow the use of his name.

When Mr. Harvey was named for the office he now holds, he was prominent among those mentioned in connection with Representative in Congress, and being from Rock county would in all probability have been nominated this fall had he not accepted the nomination for the office of Secretary of State. All this Mr. Harvey knew as well as any one else, but the voice of his party with great unanimity pronounced him the man for that place, and he relinquished what was apparently within his reach, and allowed the use of his name at the urgent request of his friends with the hope that he might discharge its duties with credit to himself, and for the best interests of the state.

Elected, he sat about the work, and those who know in what manner the affairs of that office had been managed under democratic rule, who were cognizant of the corruptions that had crept in, the extent of the profligacy and squandering of the public money through the practices in that office; and how faithful Mr. Harvey has been in the work, how the interests he was set to guard have been protected, how by his untiring perseverance the state has been relieved from the burdens heaped upon her under the administration of his predecessor, can only know how much the people of this state owe to their efficient secretary of state.

☞ Politicians in California, at the latest accounts, were almost crazy to hear from the Baltimore convention. They had only received news of the organization. There will not be much relief when they hear the whole story.

POLITICAL JOURNALS IN ALABAMA.—The Montgomery (Ala.) Advertiser having given a political classification of the papers in that state, says:

It will be seen that Bell and Everett have nearly twice as many newspaper supporters in Alabama as Douglas, and that Breckinridge and Lane have six times as many papers as Douglas, nearly four times as many as Bell and Everett, and more than twice as many as Bell and Douglas combined.

THE MEDITERRANEAN SQUADRON.—There is now but one vessel of war in the Mediterranean, at the time, of all others, when a full peace complement is necessary, owing to the revolutionary condition of Italy, and the hazards to which American citizens are necessarily exposed. The new commodore is preparing to go out, but it is slow work at the Norfolk Navy Yard, where equipment and repairs cost more than at any other, with less promptitude and satisfaction.

☞ Among the appropriations to be voted by the British parliament is one of $57,500 for Dr. Livingstone's explorations in Africa, for which another steamer is needed. The discoveries of Dr. Livinstone are regarded as of the greatest importance at the Cape colony, and the colonial legislature has appropriated funds to keep up a regular inland communication with the exploring party.

☞ I. N. Arnold has been nominated for congress by the republicans, in the Chicago district. His opponent was Mr. Farnsworth, the present member.

☞ Levi S. Chatfield of New York, has served a notice of a motion for an injunction upon the mayor and comptroller of New York to restrain them from paying any bills for the Japanese reception. The plaintiff alleges that the committee on reception and members of the common council sold tickets for the ball at from $10 to $100, the proceeds of which they pocketed.

☞ A mob tore down thirty houses of ill-fame in St. Louis, on the 25th inst. The loss is estimated at $30,000.

Political News.

All the candidates for the presidency and vice presidency, who have been provided for the American people, have been indulging in stump speeches, with the exception of the republican nominees. Senator Douglas, with his accustomed modesty, has made about a dozen short speeches. Herschell V. Johnson has made a long speech. John Bell made a speech in Philadelphia. Edward Everett has delivered a Fourth of July oration. Breckinridge has made three speeches, and Joe Lane has been guilty of several protracted talks.

On Tuesday evening last, at the meeting of the German republican club at Peoria, Illinois, six Germans, all of whom have been staunch democrats up to the present time, joined the club, and will hereafter work zealously for Lincoln and Hamlin.

Says the Peoria Transcript:—

A gentleman from one of our neighboring townships was in our office yesterday, and informed us that in his township two years ago the republicans cast only fourteen votes, but he will now pledge it for fifty for "Old Abe" the coming fall.

Mr. Henry McGrow, who owns the coal beds opposite Pekin, has in his employ ten men, all of whom were formerly democrats. Eight of them, however, believing "Old Abe" to be the working man's friend, intend to give him their votes at the approaching election.

Mr. Robert Winslow, of Bureau county, Ill., democratic elector of 1856 for the third congressional district, and up to 1858 one of the leading democrats of Illinois, is now strongly attached to republican principles, and will vote for Lincoln and Hamlin.

ST. LOUIS, July 25.

RUMORED NEGRO INSURRECTION IN TEXAS.—An "extra" from the Bonham (Texas) Era office of the 17th, received here to night by the Overland mail, contains a letter from Chas. B. Pryor, editor of Daleas Herald, stating that a fire at that place on the 8th, led to the discovery of a diabolical plan to devastate the whole of northern Texas. White men, friends of the abolition preachers Blunt and McKinney, expelled from the country last year, were the instigators of the plot. The plan was to lay the whole country waste by fire, destroying all arms, ammunition, etc., to get the country in a state of helplessness, and then on election day in August, make a general insurrection, aided by emissaries from the North, and parties friendly to the cause in Texas.

Their sphere of action was districted and sub-districted, each division being under the supervision of a white man, who controlled the negroes as subordinates. Several white men and negroes were arrested at Dallas.

The following fires are reported to have occurred the same day that Dallas was destroyed, and attributed to the same cause:

A large mercantile house at Black Jack Grove, loss $30,000; three business houses at Denton, loss $100,000; a large stone house at Pilot Point, loss $10,000; a stone house at Ladonie, loss $25,000; eight stores at Belknap, loss not given. Milford, in Ellis county, was totally destroyed, and there were several other smaller fires. Great excitement existed throughout the country. Prompt and effective measures are being taken for the preservation of property.

A Mr. Blount, from Green county in this state, was whipped in Texas last winter, and perhaps this may be the same man. He was always a democrat, and even after he came back with pro-slavery welts on his back, persisted in his democracy.

☞ The Prince of Wales is to travel in state in the colonies. Strict orders have been given by the Queen that he shall be treated like herself in all respects. Nobody can address the Prince until the Prince addresses him, and as the royal scion is extremely taciturn, the conversations at his receptions are not likely to be very brilliant.

☞ It is said that by a curious oversight the last New York Legislature repealed the only secton in the laws of the state which defined the mode of punishment by death, and consequently that no persons can be legally executed in the Empire State.

NEW JERSEY.—The two wings of the democracy at their convention in New Jersey, yesterday, did not agree upon a union electoral ticket; both factions nominated tickets of their own. The Americans also held a convention and nominated a fusion ticket, two electors for Douglas, two for Breckinridge and three for Bell.

AT THE STATE CAPITAL.—The Douglasites had their great State Mass Meeting at Springfield yesterday. They estimate the number present at 40,000, which is probably about double the actual number.

We believe the Republicans can afford to concede 40,000 to them, and go at least 10,000 better. Our State Mass Meeting will come off at Springfield on the 7th of August. It will be a Republican love feast at "Old Abe's" home. Railroads will carry for half-fare, The best speakers to be had are invited and will be present.

The people of the State will turn out, and we say unto them all, turn out!—Chicago Journal.

THE CHANGES TO LINCOLN—THE BALL IS ROLLING.—We find the following in the Bath (N. Y.) Courier:

Hon. G. Denniston, a leading member of the American party in this county, and we may add in the state, since its first organization, addressed the republicans of Prattsburg on Friday evening of last week. He reviewed the republican platform adopted at Chicago, as well as the published speeches of Mr. Lincoln, and regarding both platform and candidate as national and sound, he announced his intention to support both at the coming election. Lieut. Gov. Campbell had been advertised as the speaker of the evening, and the audience were alike surprised and gratified at this preliminary entertainment, which had not been announced in the bills.

Judge Denniston, it will be remembered, was a leading member of the legislature in 1856, and was at one time vice president of the American state council. Discovering that the American party is practically disbanded, he chooses to go with such Americans as Jas. O. Putnam, Shepard, Knapp and Daniel Ullman, for the right, rather than follow Brooks, Hunt & Co. into the camp of the pro-slavery and wrangling democracy.

Judge Denniston was the American candidate for canal commissioner, a few years since.

WHY DON'T BOYS GROW UP HANDSOME.—A correspondent of the Springfield Republican says:

For the male human race, in its common aspects, is by no means beautiful. Yet most boys are handsome. Why don't they grow up handsome? It is hard work and poverty, and rum and tobacco, and selfishness, and vanity, and all the other foolish propensities and bad habits, which so play the deuce with their good looks. Lincoln looks like a man who had inherited rough features, and had kept them rough by a hard scrimmage with life, but he is not half so ugly as some of the men who pass for handsome, and who were born handsome, and lived so till they were old enough to begin to smoke bad cigars, and "chaw" nasty tobacco, and drink "rot-gut."

Telegraphic

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE,
Office in Union Passenger Depot.

BRUNSWICK, Me., July 26.

The passenger train from Portland, on the Kennebec and Portland railroad, was thrown from the track near Bowdoin House. Two passenger cars were thrown over, but no one killed.

MONTPELIER, July 26.

The democratic state convention to nominate state officers and electors at large, was held here to-day. P. Dillingham, of Waterbury, presided, and Messrs. E. M. Smally of Burlington and Wyman of St Albans were appointed secretaries.

John G. Saxe of Burlington was nominated for governor, Stephen Thomas of West Fairly for lieut. governor, Jas. S. Thurston of Montpelier for treasurer. Electors at large, Isaac Browdith and and P. Dillingham of Waterbury.

The convention was large and enthusiastic and unanimous for Douglas and Johnson.

SENECA FALLS, July 27.

The democrats of Seneca county held an immense Douglas ratification meeting at this place last night. Over 3,000 persons were present.

CONCORD, N. H., July 27.

This morning about five o'clock, James S. Williams a merchant of Warren, N. H., stepped up to Mr. Wyatt, and shot him through the heart with a revolve. He died instantly, Williams is under arrest. The cause was trouble about an old debt, Wyatt was a young man, leaves a wife and one child.

PHILADELPHIA, July 27.

The factory of Potts & Kelarle, at Cooper's Point, near Camden, was demolished during the thunder storm yesterday afternoon. Eight men took shelter from the rain, therein, of whom three were killed, and three seriously injured. The building was two hundred feet long. Loss, four thousand dollars.

HARRISBURGH, Pa., July 26.

The democratic convention adopted, to-night, unanimously a series of resolutions endorsing the platform and nominations of the recent convention at Reading, and also the platform and resolutions of the Baltimore national democratic convention. Denouncing the plan of the state democratic committee for fusion as anti-democratic, and in opposition to the wishes of the democratic masses, and finally declaring it to be the duty of the state committee to call another convention of the democracy for the purpose of preparing an electoral ticket pledged to sustain the action of the Baltimore national convention and the regular democratic candidates, Douglas and Johnson.

NEW YORK, July 27.

The rain storm yesterday afternooon did considerable damage in this vicinity. Several houses were inundated in Williamsburg, one struck by lightning and the inmate, Mrs. Perry, killed, a barn also struck and burned. A New Yorker named Purple was stabbed twice with a bowie knife, at the St. Nicholas Hotel last evening, by a Philadelphian named Hyman.

Great excitement at Occquain, Virginia, near Alexandria, in consequence of the republicans raising a banner bearing the names of Lincoln and Hamlin. The citizens attempted to demolish it. The republicans resisted and despatched messengers to neighboring towns for arms and ammunition. Gov. Letcher ordered Gen. Hatton to call out his troops to protect the republicans, but the General preferred resigning his command. At last accounts it was expected the military of Alexandria would be called out. Occaquain contains 300 republicans and was the residence of Mr. Underwriter, the ostracised republican.

WASHINGTON, July 26.

The United States court of claims had adjourned to meet on the 25th of October next. But little business has been transacted during the present year. Counsel in many places prefering to await definite action on the congressional bill, proposing to so change the law establishing that tribunal so as to make its awards final and giving the right to appeal.

The Market.

NEW YORK, July 27.

Flour market heavy but prices without important change, sales 14,000 barrels, 5,00 a5,10 super state; 5,10a5,30 extra state; 4,80a5,00 super western; 5,05a5,20 common to medium extra western. Wheat without striking change; the scarcity of freight room and advance in rates materially checks the export demand, sales 33,000 bushels, 1,23 Milwaukee club.

GOV. SEWARD AT LA CROSSE.—The states of Wisconsin and Minnesota, through the republican central committees of their respective states, have extended a joint invitation to Hon. Wm. H. Seward to address the republicans of Wisconsin, Minnesota and northern Iowa, at a great union mass meeting to be held at La Crosse. There is good reason to believe that the invitation will be accepted, notwithstanding the meetings to be held at St. Paul, Min., and at some other point in Wisconsin.—La Crosse Republican.

The Buffalo Commercial has some sensible observations on that nasty intrigue by which Messrs. W. Hunt, J. and E. Brooks and W. Duer propose to sell the Bell voters of the state to Mr. Douglas and then deliver them, bound hand and foot to Gen. Joe Lane. "Hardly a tithe of the American vote," says the Commercial, "will be cast for Douglas. Within a day or two past we have learned that one of the most prominent members of the state national Union committee, a man whose consent is almost essential to the success of the proposed transfer, declares that he will beat the bargain if he can, and if not will vote and work for Lincoln. He is a Bell man, and no contingency can compel him to vote for Douglas."

So it must be everywhere. Such an enormous piece of humbug as that proposed by this small clique of broken down politicians can never be approved by sincere and reflecting people.—New York Tribune.

ANOTHER LINCOLN RECRUIT.—The Madison Argus having mentioned the name of John R. Detwiler as a probable democratic candidate for clerk of the board of supervisors, that gentleman publishes a note in the Madison Journal, in which he says:

"It is true, I have been a so-called hard shell democrat, until I have read the proceedings of the democratic Baltimore convention, after which I thought proper to embrace the principles of the republican party, and so I did. To my friends I mentioned my determination, but I did not see fit to state it publicly, because I did not want to see my name in print, and because I did not become a republican on account of any office, having never been an office seeker."

When he fell, he (Douglas) drew after him "the third part of heaven," as Burr, Van Buren and Benton did.—Madison Argus.

That makes four-thirds of heaven. Who took the other third?

☞ The first appearance of the meteor, discribed in another column, was at Detroit, and was observed as far east as Boston.

Visit to Milton.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Last night, agreeable to programme, the Wide Awakes of this city paid their respects to the republicans of the glorious old town of Milton.

About one hundred went up on the cars, and were most enthusiastically received on their arrival. A large bonfire was blazing on the public square, and the booming of cannon gave us the assurance of a hearty welcome.

We were received by Col. J. E. Culver, president of the Lincoln and Hamlin Club, in a neat short and appropriate speech, which was responded to by Messrs. Burgess, Sleeper and Williams, of the Janesville Wide Awakes.

After the speaking we were introduced by Col. Culver to an elegant collation, gotten up by the ladies of Milton, God bless them, when, at precisely 11 o'clock, the iron horse gave an emphatic neigh and we left for home.

This was one of the pleasantest visits we have had, and was enjoyed exceedingly by the entire company.

We were accompanied by the Janesville Cornet Band, and the regular Wide Awake Band, attached to our company, so that we had no lack of music, and good music too, and we marched and kept step to it most admirably.

The whole affair was well managed, and highly creditable to the citizens of that staunch republican town, and eminently satisfactory to us. Lincoln and Hamlin were enthusiastically cheered, of course, but when the health of the ladies of Milton was proposed the applause was deafening.

PIONEER.

For the Daily Gazette.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—It is an old saying that anything only half done is not done at all. This being the case with West Milwaukee street, I wish through you to call the attention of our worthy city fathers to it. The work on this street was never half done, and the use of it has made it worse. Is it not the duty of the city council to make the property owners put it in good condition, and if they will not do so, let the city take hold of it and charge to the property? This should be done too before the National Horse Show in September.

Who of us want strangers to see one of our principal business streets in a condition that it is hardly safe to drive a carriage over at ordinary speed? Undoubtedly we shall have many strangers visiting us this fall, and our streets should be so that they could ride through them without doing as they are obliged to do in Indiana on account of the ague, i. e., hold cobs in their mouths to keep their teeth from shaking out. Ordinary pride, to say nothing of convenience, calls loudly for repairs.

There is another point which may reach the landlords sooner than the good looks or convenience of the street. It is due to the tenants on any street to have it in such con condition that the ordinary travel will not be driven from it; but as this street now is, much of the travel and business which would naturally belong to it, is driven onto those avenues that are in better condition. This ought not to be, but it is a fact that such is the case. Now, if the property property owners do not want a strike among their tenants, let them put the street in fair condition. There is a deep feeling among them which may result in "anti-rentism." We are aware that it will be said that it is too hard times to make repairs, but it must be remembered that if it is hard times for owners, it is doubly hard for those who are obliged to rent and pay big rents, too. All we ask is a fair show. Saying nothing about this, for the reputation of the city let us have the street fixed, and let it be done at once, and before the fall shows commence.

Yours, D. D.

ALBANY REPUBLICAN CLUB.—The next meeting of the republican club is on Saturday, August 4th, at 3 o'clock P. M. Judge C. R. Gibbs and Alex. Graham, Esq., of Janesville, will be present and will address the audience.

THE GAME LAWS.—All laws of this state relative to the preservation of game were repealed by the legislature March 24th, 1860, and a new game law was adopted, of which the following is a summary:

It is lawful to take game in season, as follows:

Woodcock, from the first Tuesday in July to the first of December following.

Snipe, Grouse, Prairie Hen and Prairie Chicken, from August 12 to December 1.

Partridges, Ruffled Grouse and Quail, from the first Tuesday in September to first day of December.

Deer from August first to January 1st.

No person is allowed to kill, trap, or in any manner take game at any time, except upon his own premises.

Penalty for killing (or having in possession) birds out of season, two dollars for each offence.

Penalty for killing deer out of season, or having in possession fresh deer-skin or fresh venison, ten dollars for each offence.

From the Ohio State Journal.

Burial of Douglas.

Not a drum was heard, not a funeral note,
As his corse from the Convention we hurried:
And Pugh discharged a "Heenan left"
O'er the grave where a martyr was buried.

We buried him softly, at dead of night,
The sod with a "platform" turning;
By the struggling moonbeam's fitful light,
And the lanterns dimly burning.

No useless coffin enclosed his breast,
But in "Nebraska Bill" we wound him:
And he lay like a 'possum taking his rest,
With the cotton laying around him.

Few and short were the prayers we said,
And we breathed not a word of affection:
But we steadfastly gazed on the face of the dead,
And bitterly thought of the 'lection.

We looked as we hollowed his narrow bed,
And thought we could then "diskiver,"
That the Black Republicans would tread o'er his head
And we far away up Salt River.

Lightly they'll talk of the spirit that's gone,
And o'er his cold ashes upbraid him,
But little we care, if they let him sleep on
Where "popular sovereignty's" laid him.

But half of our weary task was done,
When the clock struck the hour for retiring;
And we heard the distant signal gun
That the Lincoln men were firing.

Slowly and sadly we laid him down,
From the field of defeat fresh and gory;
And the Union refuses to raise a stone
To tell of his mighty glory.

And now, to the lords of the sunny south,
We yield implicit subjection;
And hope that the martyr of Illinois
Will ne'er have a resurrection.

GUN SHOP STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.—The gun shop of William Haywood, on West Water street, nearly opposite the Fountain House, was struck by lightning during the storm yesterday, and considerably shattered, but nobody was hurt. The electric fluid entered the building simultaneously in three different places, over the front door, at the south side of the shop window, breaking several lights of glass, and scorching the boards through which it forced an opening, and through a skylight in the roof, breaking the ceiling down in the centre of the shop. There were several workmen in the shop at the time, but further than being slightly stunned they received no injury.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

THE ITALIAN TRI-COLOR IN NEW YORK HARBOR.—The Italian tri-color was first hoisted in New York harbor on Saturday, on the bark Pejero, which left Palermo on the 4th of April last. The event was celebrated in the most enthusiastic manner by the officers and crew of the vessel, and by distinguished Italian gentlemen of Brooklyn and vicinity. The bark was gaily decorated with flags of different nations, and the 8th regiment band enlivened the occasion with excellent music.

Life Insurance.

Those desiring this safest and cheapest protection for their families, can secure it in our Wisconsin company. It has already become, in reality, a state institution, having agents and patrons among the best business men in all the principal towns in the state. It is no longer a matter of doubt that life insurance can be conducted as well in Wisconsin as in Connecticut or any other eastern state.

While duty demands that men should insure their lives, it also demands that they should keep their money for investment at home. Confident that our success has been more than equal to that of the most "unprecedented," we would cordially invite all our citizens to call at the office, southwest corner of Main and Wisconsin streets, and examine for themselves.

Politics at the South—A Union of all Parties upon Breckinridge.

We are indebted to a friend in this city for a copy of the Montgomery Mail, of the 12th inst., the principal democratic organ published at the capital of Alabama. From a perusal of it we get a very good idea of the tendency of public opinion at the south, on the subject of the presidency. There is much turmoil among the people of that region at this time on the subject of politics. The division of the democratic party, its double nomination, and the nomination of Bell and Everett, stir up the south from the very bottom. The questions with every man are—"what am I to do?" "which is the strongest party?" and "what course will help the south the most?" In the present distracted state of things it is difficult for the southerners, who follow leaders more than any other people, to answer these questions, and hence they are very anxious and excited.

There is a large party at the south opposed to the dissolution of the Union. This has grown up in consequence of former contests upon that subject, as well as because many of them see plainly enough that the south, outside of the union, would be very weak, and could not even defend themselves against their own negroes. The union party was always pretty strong, and they are making great efforts to become the predominant party in the south, since the democratic party has been divided between Douglas and Breckinridge.

The Douglas party has but one point of strength, which is, that they claim to be able to carry some of the northern states with their candidate, whereas the Breckinridge party have no hope of that kind, and it is upon this string that they play continually at the south. Even this argument, does not seem to effect much against the feeling that southern slavery is no longer safe in the hands of northern men who have once proved unfaithful. The Middle Georgian says that out of thirty-five newspapers in Georgia "two have hoisted the names of Douglas and Johnson." The Montgomery Mail says that there are now only "twelve Douglas organs in this state." [Alabama.] So it will be seen that Douglasism is not very strong in that region. This feeling of weakness is inducing them to make offers for a union with the Bell and Everett men. The Mail says there is evidently a billing and cooing going on between some of the Douglas and Bell journals of Alabama and Georgia; and the Middle Georgian declares that "the Douglas men south, despairing of the success of their own candidates, intend to take Bell and Everett as the alternative."

It is quite evident that the Douglas party south is to be wiped out of existence very soon, either by a transfer to the Bell and Everett party, or else a general stampede to the support of Breckinridge.

The Montgomery Mail comes out with a leader and proposes a union upon Breckinridge and Lane of all parties at the south to defeat Lincoln, which they fear cannot be accomplished in any other way. In order that the Douglas men north may see how "things is working" at the south, we copy their article:

"AN UNITED FRONT TO DEFEAT LINCOLN."—In reply to an article of ours thus headed, the Augusta Chronicle asks, "how Breckinridge can be elected, even if every voter in every southern state should support him, and still make the race in the north."

We do not know, of course, that Mr. Breckinridge would be elected even if he should receive the united vote of the south, and all the votes of the north opposed to abolitionism in all of its phases. Still it is clear that if the people of the south do not make a united and determined effort to defeat Lincoln, they may look in vain for a union in defence of their rights elsewhere. We feel assured that the bulk of the people of the north opposed to Lincoln would concentrate their energies to the election of Breckinridge if they could be convinced that he will carry every southern state. But as long as the southern people seem divided in their opposition to Lincoln, it is folly to look for unity in the same cause in the north.

The signs indicate that two-thirds of the popular vote of the south are in favor of Breckinridge. Still one or two southern states may cast their votes against him, if three tickets remain in the field, and this would probably result in the election of a black republican. To avoid all unnecessary risk, it is the policy of the south, in our humble opinion, to present an united front to defeat Lincoln, and this union should adopt Breckinridge and Lane as standard-bearers—the only ticket which stands committed to state rights and state equality in the Union. Their platform is explicit, and cannot be misinterpreted. It unequivocally asserts for the south all the rights in dispute. If southern men will rally to it in solid phalanx, and show to the north before the election that they are united, the opponents of black republicanism at the north will also rally to it—and the black republicans will not dare to elect Lincoln, even if they have the power. But if the south remain divided at the ballot box, her people will scarcely deserve sympathy, no matter what the result may be.

If the south cannot unite upon Breckinridge and Lane, and the platform they are pledged to be guided by in their construction of the constitution, it is folly to think of uniting upon any other ticket or platform now in the field.

From this it is evident that the Douglas men in this state, who are working in good faith for their candidate, can place no confidence in southern democrats. While here democrats are laboring for Douglas, in the south they are SELLING HIM OUT. Let the Douglas men keep a sharp eye upon their southern brethren.

☞ We find in the Free Democrat the names of several other gentlemen, residents of this county, who have been mentioned as candidates for congress, besides those alluded to in our paper yesterday. We will therefore re-publish the list, so far as we have heard them named. They are as follows: Messrs. J. A. Sleeper, Alex. Graham, J. M. Burgess, C. G. Williams, J. H. Knowlton, James Sutherland, I. C. Sloan, L. P. Harvey and Z. P. Burdick. It is needless for us to say that these are all good men and that if either of them should be nominated, would receive our cordial support. The same remark may also be applied to Luther Hanchett of Portage, and J. Allen Barber of Grant, whose names have also been suggested.

HON. L. P. HARVEY.—It has been currently reported in various quarters that Hon. L. P. Harvey was or would be a candidate for Congress this fall. This representation certainly cannot come from his friends who know his feelings or wishes in this matter, for we do know that Mr. Harvey has repeatedly declared he was not a candidate nor would he in any event allow the use of his name.

When Mr. Harvey was named for the office he now holds, he was prominent among those mentioned in connection with Representative in Congress, and being from Rock county would in all probability have been nominated this fall had he not accepted the nomination for the office of Secretary of State. All this Mr. Harvey knew as well as any one else, but the voice of his party with great unanimity pronounced him the man for that place, and he relinquished what was apparently within his reach, and allowed the use of his name at the urgent request of his friends with the hope that he might discharge its duties with credit to himself, and for the best interests of the state.

Elected, he sat about the work, and those who know in what manner the affairs of that office had been managed under democratic rule, who were cognizant of the corruptions that had crept in, the extent of the profligacy and squandering of the public money through the practices in that office; and how faithful Mr. Harvey has been in the work, how the interests he was set to guard have been protected, how by his untiring perseverance the state has been relieved from the burdens heaped upon her under the administration of his predecessor, can only know how much the people of this state owe to their efficient secretary of state.

☞ Politicians in California, at the latest accounts, were almost crazy to hear from the Baltimore convention. They had only received news of the organization. There will not be much relief when they hear the whole story.

POLITICAL JOURNALS IN ALABAMA.—The Montgomery (Ala.) Advertiser having given a political classification of the papers in that state, says:

It will be seen that Bell and Everett have nearly twice as many newspaper supporters in Alabama as Douglas, and that Breckinridge and Lane have six times as many papers as Douglas, nearly four times as many as Bell and Everett, and more than twice as many as Bell and Douglas combined.

THE MEDITERRANEAN SQUADRON.—There is now but one vessel of war in the Mediterranean, at the time, of all others, when a full peace complement is necessary, owing to the revolutionary condition of Italy, and the hazards to which American citizens are necessarily exposed. The new commodore is preparing to go out, but it is slow work at the Norfolk Navy Yard, where equipment and repairs cost more than at any other, with less promptitude and satisfaction.

☞ Among the appropriations to be voted by the British parliament is one of $57,500 for Dr. Livingstone's explorations in Africa, for which another steamer is needed. The discoveries of Dr. Livinstone are regarded as of the greatest importance at the Cape colony, and the colonial legislature has appropriated funds to keep up a regular inland communication with the exploring party.

☞ I. N. Arnold has been nominated for congress by the republicans, in the Chicago district. His opponent was Mr. Farnsworth, the present member.

☞ Levi S. Chatfield of New York, has served a notice of a motion for an injunction upon the mayor and comptroller of New York to restrain them from paying any bills for the Japanese reception. The plaintiff alleges that the committee on reception and members of the common council sold tickets for the ball at from $10 to $100, the proceeds of which they pocketed.

☞ A mob tore down thirty houses of ill-fame in St. Louis, on the 25th inst. The loss is estimated at $30,000.

Political News.

All the candidates for the presidency and vice presidency, who have been provided for the American people, have been indulging in stump speeches, with the exception of the republican nominees. Senator Douglas, with his accustomed modesty, has made about a dozen short speeches. Herschell V. Johnson has made a long speech. John Bell made a speech in Philadelphia. Edward Everett has delivered a Fourth of July oration. Breckinridge has made three speeches, and Joe Lane has been guilty of several protracted talks.

On Tuesday evening last, at the meeting of the German republican club at Peoria, Illinois, six Germans, all of whom have been staunch democrats up to the present time, joined the club, and will hereafter work zealously for Lincoln and Hamlin.

Says the Peoria Transcript:—

A gentleman from one of our neighboring townships was in our office yesterday, and informed us that in his township two years ago the republicans cast only fourteen votes, but he will now pledge it for fifty for "Old Abe" the coming fall.

Mr. Henry McGrow, who owns the coal beds opposite Pekin, has in his employ ten men, all of whom were formerly democrats. Eight of them, however, believing "Old Abe" to be the working man's friend, intend to give him their votes at the approaching election.

Mr. Robert Winslow, of Bureau county, Ill., democratic elector of 1856 for the third congressional district, and up to 1858 one of the leading democrats of Illinois, is now strongly attached to republican principles, and will vote for Lincoln and Hamlin.

St. Louis, July 25.

RUMORED NEGRO INSURRECTION IN TEXAS.—An "extra" from the Bonham (Texas) Era office of the 17th, received here to night by the Overland mail, contains a letter from Chas. B. Pryor, editor of Dalcas Herald, stating that a fire at that place on the 8th, led to the discovery of a diabolical plan to devastate the whole of northern Texas. White men, friends of the abolition preachers Blunt and McKinney, expelled from the country last year, were the instigators of the plot. The plan was to lay the whole country waste by fire, destroying all arms, ammunition, etc., to get the country in a state of helplessness, and then on election day in August, make a general insurrection, aided by emissaries from the North, and parties friendly to the cause in Texas.

Their sphere of action was districted and sub-districted, each division being under the supervision of a white man, who controlled the negroes as subordinates. Several white men and negroes were arrested at Dallas.

The following fires are reported to have occurred the same day that Dallas was destroyed, and attributed to the same cause:

A large mercantile house at Black Jack Grove, loss $30,000; three business houses at Denton, loss $100,000; a large stone house at Pilot Point, loss $10,000; a stone house at Ladonie, loss $25,000; eight stores at Belknap, loss not given. Milford, in Ellis county, was totally destroyed, and there were several other smaller fires. Great excitement existed throughout the country. Prompt and effective measures are being taken for the preservation of property.

A Mr. Blount, from Green county in this state, was whipped in Texas last winter, and perhaps this may be the same man. He was always a democrat, and even after he came back with pro-slavery welts on his back, persisted in his democracy.

☞ The Prince of Wales is to travel in state in the colonies. Strict orders have been given by the Queen that he shall be treated like herself in all respects. Nobody can address the Prince until the Prince addresses him, and as the royal scion is extremely taciturn, the conversations at his receptions are not likely to be very brilliant.

☞ It is said that by a curious oversight the last New York Legislature repealed the only secton in the laws of the state which defined the mode of punishment by death, and consequently that no persons can be legally executed in the Empire State.

NEW JERSEY.—The two wings of the democracy at their convention in New Jersey, yesterday, did not agree upon a union electoral ticket; both factions nominated tickets of their own. The Americans also held a convention and nominated a fusion ticket, two electors for Douglas, two for Breckinridge and three for Bell.

AT THE STATE CAPITAL.—The Douglasites had their great State Mass Meeting at Springfield yesterday. They estimate the number present at 40,000, which is probably about double the actual number.

We believe the Republicans can afford to concede 40,000 to them, and go at least 10,000 better. Our State Mass Meeting will come off at Springfield on the 7th of August. It will be a Republican love feast at "Old Abe's" home. Railroads will carry for half-fare. The best speakers to be had are invited and will be present.

The people of the State will turn out, and we say unto them all, turn out!—Chicago Journal.

THE CHANGES TO LINCOLN—THE BALL IS ROLLING.—We find the following in the Bath (N. Y.) Courier:

Hon. G. Denniston, a leading member of the American party in this county, and we may add in the state, since its first organization, addressed the republicans of Prattsburg on Friday evening of last week. He reviewed the republican platform adopted at Chicago, as well as the published speeches of Mr. Lincoln, and regarding both platform and candidate as national and sound, he announced his intention to support both at the coming election. Lieut. Gov. Campbell had been advertised as the speaker of the evening, and the audience were alike surprised and gratified at this preliminary entertainment, which had not been announced in the bills.

Judge Denniston, it will be remembered, was a leading member of the legislature in 1856, and was at one time vice president of the American state council. Discovering that the American party is practically disbanded, he chooses to go with such Americans as Jas. O. Putnam, Shepard, Knapp and Daniel Ullman, for the right, rather than follow Brooks, Hunt & Co. into the camp of the pro-slavery and wrangling democracy.

Judge Denniston was the American candidate for canal commissioner, a few years since.

WHY DON'T BOYS GROW UP HANDSOME.—A correspondent of the Springfield Republican says:

For the male human race, in its common aspects, is by no means beautiful. Yet most boys are handsome. Why don't they grow up handsome? It is hard work and poverty, and rum and tobacco, and selfishness, and vanity, and all the other foolish propensities and bad habits, which so play the deuce with their good looks. Lincoln looks like a man who had inherited rough features, and had kept them in [illegible] by a hard scrimmage with life, but he is not half so ugly as some of the men who [illegible] handsome, and who never [illegible] and lived [illegible] till they were [illegible] enough to begin to smoke bad cigars, and "chew" nasty tobacco, and drink "rot gut."

Telegraphic

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE,

Office in Union Passenger Depot.

BRUNSWICK, Me., July 26.

The passenger train from Portland, on the Kennebec and Portland railroad, was thrown from the track near Bowdoin House. Two passenger cars were thrown over, but no one killed.

MONTPELIER, July 26.

The democratic state convention to nominate state officers and electors at large, was held here to-day. P. Dillingham, of Waterbury, presided, and Messrs. E. M. Smally of Burlington and Wyman of St Albans were appointed secretaries.

John G. Saxe of Burlington was nominated for governor, Stephen Thomas of West Fairly for lieut. governor, Jas. S. Thurston of Montpelier for treasurer. Electors at large, Isaac Browdith and and P. Dillingham of Waterbury.

The convention was large and enthusiastic and unanimous for Douglas and Johnson.

SENECA FALLS, July 27.

The democrats of Seneca county held an immense Douglas ratification meeting at this place last night. Over 3,000 persons were present.

CONCORD, N. H., July 27.

This morning about five o'clock, James S. Williams a merchant of Warren, N. H., stepped up to Mr. Wyatt, and shot him through the heart with a revolve. He died instantly, Williams is under arrest. The cause was trouble about an old debt, Wyatt was a young man, leaves a wife and one child.

PHILADELPHIA, July 27.

The factory of Potts & Kelarle, at Cooper's Point, near Camden, was demolished during the thunder storm yesterday afternoon. Eight men took shelter from the rain, therein, of whom three were killed, and three seriously injured. The building was two hundred feet long. Loss, four thousand dollars.

HARRISBURGH, Pa., July 26.

The democratic convention adopted, to-night, unanimously a series of resolutions endorsing the platform and nominations of the recent convention at Reading, and also the platform and resolutions of the Baltimore national democratic convention. Denouncing the plan of the state democratic committee for fusion as anti-democratic, and in opposition to the wishes of the democratic masses, and finally declaring it to be the duty of the state committee to call another convention of the democracy for the purpose of preparing an electoral ticket pledged to sustain the action of the Baltimore national convention and the regular democratic candidates, Douglas and Johnson.

NEW YORK, July 27.

The rain storm yesterday afternoon did considerable damage in this vicinity. Several houses were inundated in Williamsburg, one struck by lightning and the inmate, Mrs. Perry, killed, a barn also struck and burned. A New Yorker named Purple was stabbed twice with a bowie knife, at the St. Nicholas Hotel last evening, by a Philacelphian named Hyman.

Great excitement at Occquain, Virginia, near Alexandria, in consequence of the republicans raising a banner bearing the names of Lincoln and Hamlin. The citizens attempted to demolish it. The republicans resisted and despatched messengers to neighboring towns for arms and ammunition. Gov. Letcher ordered Gen. Hatton to call out his troops to protect the republicans, but the General preferred resigning his command. At last accounts it was expected the military of Alexandria would be called out. Occquain contains 300 republicans and was the residence of Mr. Underwriter, the ostracised republican.

WASHINGTON, July 26.

The United States court of claims had adjourned to meet on the 25th of October next. But little business has been transacted during the present year. Counsel in many places prefering to await definite action on the congressional bill, proposing to so change the law establishing that tribunal so as to make its awards final and giving the right to appeal.

The Market.

NEW YORK, July 27.

Flour market heavy but prices without important change, sales 14,000 barrels, 5,00 a5,10 super state; 5,10a5,30 extra state; 4,80a5,00 super western; 5,05a5,20 common to medium extra western. Wheat without striking change; the scarcity of freight room and advance in rates materially checks the export demand, sales 33,000 bushels, 1,23 Milwaukee club.

GOV. SEWARD AT LA CROSSE.—The states of Wisconsin and Minnesota, through the republican central committees of their respective states, have extended a joint invitation to Hon. Wm. H. Seward to address the republicans of Wisconsin, Minnesota and northern Iowa, at a great union mass meeting to be held at La Crosse. There is good reason to believe that the invitation will be accepted, notwithstanding the meetings to be held at St. Paul, Min., and at some other point in Wisconsin.—La Crosse Republican.

The Buffalo Commercial has some sensible observations on that nasty intrigue by which Messrs. W. Hunt, J. and E. Brooks and W. Duer propose to sell the Bell voters of the state to Mr. Douglas and then deliver them, bound hand and foot to Gen. Joe Lane. "Hardly a tithe of the American vote," says the Commercial, "will be cast for Douglas. Within a day or two past we have learned that one of the most prominent members of the state national Union committee, a man whose consent is almost essential to the success of the proposed transfer, declares that he will beat the bargain if he can, and if not will vote and work for Lincoln. He is a Bell man, and no contingency can compel him to vote for Douglas."

So it must be everywhere. Such an enormous piece of humbug as that proposed by this small clique of broken down politicians can never be approved by sincere and reflecting people.—New York Tribune.

ANOTHER LINCOLN RECRUIT.—The Madison Argus having mentioned the name of John R. Detwiler as a probable democratic candidate for clerk of the board of supervisors, that gentleman publishes a note in the Madison Journal, in which he says:

"It is true, I have been a so-called hard shell democrat, until I have read the proceedings of the democratic Baltimore convention, after which I thought proper to embrace the principles of the republican party, and so I did. To my friends I mentioned my determination, but I did not see fit to state it publicly, because I did not want to see my name in print, and because I did not become a republican on account of any office, having never been an office seeker."

When he fell, he (Douglas) drew after him "the third part of heaven," as Burr, Van Buren and Benton did.—Madison Argus.

That makes four thirds of heaven. Who took the other third?

Visit to Milton.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Last night, agreeable to programme, the Wide Awakes of this city paid their respects to the republicans of the glorious old town of Milton.

About one hundred went up on the cars, and were most enthusiastically received on their arrival. A large bonfire was blazing on the public square, and the booming of cannon gave us the assurance of a hearty welcome.

We were received by Col. J. E. Culver, president of the Lincoln and Hamlin Club, in a neat short and appropriate speech, which was responded to by Messrs. Burgess, Steeper and Williams, of the Janesville Wide Awakes.

After the speaking we were introduced by Col. Culver to an elegant collation, gotten up by the ladies of Milton, God bless them, when, at precisely 11 o'clock, the iron horse gave an emphatic neigh and we left for home.

This was one of the pleasantest visits we have had, and was enjoyed exceedingly by the entire company.

We were accompanied by the Janesville Cornet Band, and the regular Wide Awake Band, attached to our company, so that we had no lack of music, and good music too, and we marched and kept step to it most admirably.

The whole affair was well managed, and highly creditable to the citizens of that staunch republican town, and eminently satisfactory to us. Lincoln and Hamlin were enthusiastically cheered, of course, but when the health of the ladies of Milton was proposed the applause was deafening.

PIONEER.

For the Daily Gazette.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—It is an old saying that anything only half done is not done at all. This being the case with West Milwaukee street, I wish through you to call the attention of our worthy city fathers to it. The work on this street was never half done, and the use of it has made it worse. Is it not the duty of the city council to make the property owners put it in good condition, and if they will not do so, let the city take hold of it and charge to the property? This should be done too before the National Horse Show in September.

Who of us want strangers to see one of our principal business streets in a condition that it is hardly safe to drive a carriage over at ordinary speed? Undoubtedly we shall have many strangers visiting us this fall and our streets should be so that they could ride through them without doing as they are obliged to do in Indiana on account of the ague, i. e., hold cobs in their mouths to keep their teeth from shaking out. Ordinary pride, to say nothing of convenience, calls loudly for repairs.

There is another point which may reach the landlords sooner than the good looks or convenience of the street. It is due to the tenants on any street to have it in such condition that the ordinary travel will not be driven from it; but as this street now is, much of the travel and business which would naturally belong to it, is driven onto those avenues that are in better condition. This ought not to be, but it is a fact that such is the case. Now, if the property property owners do not want a strike among their tenants, let them put the street in fair condition. There is a deep feeling among them which may result in "anti-rentism." We are aware that it will be said that it is too hard times to make repairs, but it must be remembered that if it is hard times for owners, it is doubly hard for those who are obliged to rent and pay big rents, too. All we ask is a fair show. Saying nothing about this, for the reputation of the city let us have the street fixed, and let it be done at once, and before the fall shows commence.

Yours, D. D.

ALBANY REPUBLICAN CLUB.—The next meeting of the republican club is on Saturday, August 4th, at 3 o'clock P. M. Judge C. R. Gibbs and Alex. Graham, Esq., of Janesville, will be present and will address the audience.

THE GAME LAWS.—All laws of this state relative to the preservation of game were repealed by the legislature March 24th, 1860, and a new game law was adopted, of which the following is a summary:

It is lawful to take game in season, as follows:

Woodcock, from the first Tuesday in July to the first of December following.

Snipe, Grouse, Prairie Hen and Prairie Chicken, from August 12 to December 1.

Partridges, Ruffled Grouse and Quail, from the first Tuesday in September to first day of December.

Deer from August first to January 1st.

No person is allowed to kill, trap, or in any manner take game at any time, except upon his own premises.

Penalty for killing (or having in possession) birds out of season, two dollars for each offence.

Penalty for killing deer out of season, or having in possession fresh deer-skin or fresh venison, ten dollars for each offence.

From the Ohio State Journal.

Burial of Douglas.

Not a drum was heard, not a funeral note,
As his corse from the Convention we hurried;
And Pugh discharged a "Heenan left"
O'er the grave where a martyr was buried.

We buried him softly, at dead of night,
The sad with a "platform" turning;
By the struggling moonbeam's fitful light,
And the lanterns dimly burning.

No useless coffin enclosed his breast,
But in "Nebraska Bill" we wound him;
And he lay like a 'possom taking his rest,
With the cotton laying around him.

Few and short were the prayers we said,
And we breathed not a word of affection;
But we steadfastly gazed on the face of the dead,
And bitterly thought of the 'lection.

We looked as we hollowed his narrow bed,
And thought we could then "diskiver,"
That the Black Republicans would tread o'er his head
And we far away up Salt River.

Lightly they'll talk of the spirit that's gone,
And o'er his cold ashes upbraid him,
But little we care, if they let him sleep on
Where "popular sovereignty's" laid him.

But half of our weary task was done,
When the clock struck the hour for retiring;
And we heard the distant signal gun
That the Lincoln men were firing.

Slowly and sadly we laid him down,
From the field of defeat fresh and gory;
And the Union refuses to raise a stone
To tell of his mighty glory.

And now, to the lords of the sunny south,
We yield implicit subjection;
And hope that the martyr of Illinois
Will ne'er have a resurrection.

MADISON EXCURSION.—The Sabbath schools and all others who intend to participate in the reception of our Madison friends on Monday next are requested to provide their own refreshments, and send them by 9 o'clock Monday morning to the respective churches with which they are connected.

Notice will be given in to-morrow's paper of the order of arrangements.

GUN SHOP STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.—The gun shop of William Haywood, on West Water street, nearly opposite the Fountain House, was struck by lightning during the storm yesterday, and considerably shattered, but nobody was hurt. The electric fluid entered the building simultaneously in three different places, over the front door, at the south side of the shop window, breaking several lights of glass, and scorching the boards through which it forced an opening, and through a skylight in the roof, breaking the ceiling down in the centre of the shop. There were several workmen in the shop at the time, but further than being slightly stunned they received no injury.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

THE ITALIAN TRI-COLOR IN NEW YORK HARBOR.—The Italian tri-color was first hoisted in New York harbor on Saturday, on the bark Pejero, which left Palermo on the 4th of April last. The event was celebrated in the most enthusiastic manner by the officers and crew of the vessel, and by distinguished Italian gentlemen of Brooklyn and vicinity. The bark was gaily decorated with flags of different nations, and the 8th regiment band enlivened the occasion with excellent music.

The Bangor Whig states that the company engaged in taking out goods from the wreck of the steamer Hungarian, obtain from five to six hundred dollars worth per day. The wreck is full of bodies, some of which can be seen at low water, and the sight is represented as extremely distressing.

Life Insurance.

Those desiring this safest and cheapest protection for their families, can secure it in our Wisconsin company. It has already become, in reality, a state institution, having agents and patrons among the best business men in all the principal towns in the state. It is no longer a matter of doubt that life insurance can be conducted as well in Wisconsin as in Connecticut or any other eastern state.

While duty demands that men should insure their lives, it also demands that they should keep their money for investment at home. Confident that our success has been more than equal to that of the most "unprecedented," we would cordially invite all our citizens to call at the office, southwest corner of Main and Wisconsin streets, and examine for themselves.

A. W. KELLOGG, Secretary.

☞ Messrs. Pixley & Harlow, produce dealers, and Capt. Geo. S. Dodge will receive applications for insurance in this home company, and will also be happy to give information as to the condition thereof, to any one desirous of being informed, in Janesville.

puff themselves, and as he is now upon his 'own hook,' he is determined that they shall be better and more acceptable to the public than ever. The people will now know where tobacco of all kinds and in all shapes, of the choicest variety, may be found. BENTON'S IS THE PLACE. Give him a call.

Visit to Milton.

Messrs. Editors:—Last night, agreeable to programme, the Wide Awakes of this city paid their respects to the republicans of the glorious old town of Milton.

About one hundred went up on the cars, and were most enthusiastically received on their arrival. A large bonfire was blazing on the public square, and the booming of cannon gave us the assurance of a hearty welcome.

We were received by Col. J. E. Culver, president of the Lincoln and Hamlin Club, in a neat short and appropriate speech, which was responded to by Messrs. Burgess, Sleeper and Williams, of the Janesville Wide Awakes.

After the speaking we were introduced by Col. Culver to an elegant collation, gotten up by the ladies of Milton, God bless them, when, at precisely 11 o'clock, the iron horse gave an emphatic neigh and we left for home.

This was one of the pleasantest visits we have had, and was enjoyed exceedingly by the entire company.

We were accompanied by the Janesville Cornet Band, and the regular Wide Awake Band, attached to our company, so that we had no lack of music, and good music too, and we marched and kept step to it most admirably.

The whole affair was well managed, and highly creditable to the citizens of that staunch republican town, and eminently satisfactory to us. Lincoln and Hamlin were enthusiastically cheered, of course, but when the health of the ladies of Milton was proposed the applause was deafening.

PIONEER.

For the Daily Gazette.

Messrs. Editors:—It is an old saying that anything only half done is not done at all. This being the case with West Milwaukee street, I wish through you to call the attention of our worthy city fathers to it. The work on this street was never half done, and the use of it has made it worse. Is it not the duty of the city council to make the property owners put it in good condition, and if they will not do so, let the city take hold of it and charge to the property? This should be done too before the National Horse Show in September.

Who of us want strangers to see one of our principal business streets in a condition that it is hardly safe to drive a carriage over at ordinary speed? Undoubtedly we shall have many strangers visiting us this fall, and our streets should be so that they could ride through them without doing as they are obliged to do in Indiana on account of the ague, i. e., hold cobs in their mouths to keep their teeth from shaking out. Ordinary pride, to say nothing of convenience, calls loudly for repairs.

There is another point which may reach the landlords sooner than the good looks or convenience of the street. It is due to the tenants on any street to have it in such condition that the ordinary travel will not be driven from it; but as this street now is, much of the travel and business which would naturally belong to it, is driven onto those avenues that are in better condition. This ought not to be, but it is a fact that such is the case. Now, if the property property owners do not want a strike among their tenants, let them put the street in fair condition. There is a deep feeling among them which may result in "anti-rentism." We are aware that it will be said that it is too hard times to make repairs, but it must be remembered that if it is hard times for owners, it is doubly hard for those who are obliged to rent and pay big rents, too. All we ask is a fair show. Saying nothing about this, for the reputation of the city let us have the street fixed, and let it be done at once, and before the fall shows commence.

Yours, D. D.

☞ The Madison Argus says there is some talk of the Governor's Guard visiting Janesville with the Band of Hope. Hope they will come.

☞ The Chicago Tribune says that the census of that city will show that the population is a good many thousand below what it has previously been estimated.

☞ The Chicago and Northwestern railroad company are about to put one hundred and fifty more freight cars on their road, to accommodate its increasing business.

☞ The steeple of the Presbyterian church in Norwalk, Ohio, was blown down upon the roof of the church, on Thursday.

☞ In the Massachusetts state democratic convention, yesterday, a resolution endorsing Breckinridge and Lane was defeated by a tie vote.

Albany Republican Club.—The next meeting of the republican club is on Saturday, August 4th, at 3 o'clock P. M. Judge C. R. Gibbs and Alex. Graham, Esq., of Janesville, will be present and will address the audience.

The Game Laws.—All laws of this state relative to the preservation of game were repealed by the legislature March 24th, 1860, and a new game law was adopted, of which the following is a summary:

It is lawful to take game in season, as follows:

Woodcock, from the first Tuesday in July to the first of December following.

Snipe, Grouse, Prairie Hen and Prairie Chicken, from August 12 to December 1.

Partridge, Ruffled Grouse and Quail, from the first Tuesday in September to first day of December.

Deer from August first to January 1st.

No person is allowed to kill, trap, or in any manner take game at any time, except upon his own premises.

Penalty for killing (or having in possession) [illegible]

[illegible] ten dollars for each offense.

From the Ohio State Journal.

Burial of Douglas.

Not a drum was heard, not a funeral note,
As his corse from the Convention we hurried,
And Pugh discharged his "Heenan left"
O'er the grave where a martyr was buried.

We buried him softly, at dead of night,
The sod with a "platform" turning;
By the struggling moonbeam's fitful light,
And the lanterns dimly burning.

No useless coffin enclosed his breast,
But in "Nebraska Bill" we wound him;
And he lay like a 'possum taking his rest,
With the cotton laying around him.

Few and short were the prayers we said,
And we breathed not a word of affection:
But we steadfastly gazed on the face of the dead,
And bitterly thought of the 'lection.

We looked as we hollowed his narrow bed,
And thought we could then "diskiver,"
That the Black Republicans would tread o'er his head
And we far away up Salt River.

Lightly they'll talk of the spirit that's gone,
And o'er his cold ashes upbraid him,
But little we care, if they let him sleep on
Where "popular sovereignty's" laid him.

But half of our weary task was done,
When the clock struck the hour for retiring;
And we heard the distant signal gun
That the Lincoln men were firing.

Slowly and sadly we laid him down,
From the field of defeat fresh and gory;
And the Union refuses to raise a stone
To tell of his mighty glory.

And now, to the lords of the sunny south,
We yield implicit subjection;
And hope that the martyr of Illinois
Will ne'er have a resurrection.

Madison Excursion.—The Sabbath schools and all others who intend to participate in the reception of our Madison friends on Monday next are requested to provide their own refreshments, and send them by 9 o'clock Monday morning to the respective churches with which they are connected.

Notice will be given in to-morrow's paper of the order of arrangements.

☞ The population of Watertown, Wis., as returned by the census taken, is 5,242. The Democrat says this is considerable of a falling off from the enumeration of 1855.

☞ A piece of barley harvested near Waterloo, in Jefferson county, averaged fifty-eight bushels to the acre.

☞ Yesterday was another grand day for harvesting. Towards night it became cloudy and looked like rain.

☞ Our streets are looking very dull. But it is a dullness that no one need regret. A great many of our citizens are out helping in the harvest fields, and the farmers are too busy to come to town.

Gun Shop Struck by Lightning.—The gun shop of William Haywood, on West Water street, nearly opposite the Fountain House, was struck by lightning during the storm yesterday, and considerably shattered, but nobody was hurt. The electric fluid entered the building simultaneously in three different places, over the front door, at the south side of the shop window, breaking several lights of glass, and scorching the boards through which it forced an opening, and through a skylight in the roof, breaking the ceiling down in the centre of the shop. There were several workmen in the shop at the time, but further than being slightly stunned they received no injury.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

The Italian Tri-Color in New York Harbor.—The Italian tri-color was first hoisted in New York harbor on Saturday, on the bark Pejero, which left Palermo on the 4th of April last. The event was celebrated in the most enthusiastic manner by the officers and crew of the vessel, and by distinguished Italian gentlemen of Brooklyn and vicinity. The bark was gaily decorated with flags of different nations, and the 8th regiment band enlivened the occasion with excellent music.

The Bangor Whig states that the company engaged in taking out goods from the wreck of the steamer Hungarian, obtain from five to six hundred dollars worth per day. The wreck is full of bodies, some of which can be seen at low water, and the sight is represented as extremely distressing.

Life Insurance.

Those desiring this safest and cheapest protection for their families, can secure it in our Wisconsin company. It has already become, in reality, a state institution, having agents and patrons among the best business men in all the principal towns in the state. It is no longer a matter of doubt that life insurance can be conducted as well in Wisconsin as in Connecticut or any other eastern state.

While duty demands that men should insure their lives, it also demands that they should keep their money for investment at home. Confident that our success has been more than equal to that of the most "unprecedented," we would cordially invite all our citizens to call at the office, southwest corner of Main and Wisconsin streets, and examine for themselves.

S. S. DAGGETT, President.
A. W. Kellogg, Secretary.

☞ Messrs. Pixley & Harlow, produce dealers, and Capt. Geo. S. Dodge will receive applications for insurance in this home company, and will also be happy to give information as to the condition thereof, to any one desirous of being informed, in Janesville.
